Body And Face Slimming Weight Loss 12DMAX HIFU Slimming Machine Face Lifting For Winkle Removal

Technology

The latest MMFU high energy focused ultrasound technology is a non-invasive equipment for skin tightening. It can improve the face lifting, skin tightening, contouring with maximum efficiency through non-surgical treatment, with extraordinary clinical effect.

Using the latest patented technology of HFI and mmfu, it can produce high-energy focused ultrasound, quickly penetrate the epidermis, fat layer, stimulate the membrane contraction of SMAS layer, instantly make skin tissue reach high temperature 65 °C , so as to produce thermal coagulation effect, form reticular condensation points in dermis and fascia layer, stimulate fiber and collagen tissue to contract and tighten, regenerate and repair, and achieve layer by layer lifting and layer tightening 47mhz transducer produces energy which forms micro coagulation in the dermis and fascia layer, while the 2MHz transducer transmits the macro energy to the subcutaneous fat layer, selectively reduces the fat cells.
